SECTION 3: THE MONDAY HANDOFF

Script the conversation for each handoff. Say these words Monday morning.

"I'm handing you ownership of: _____"

"Here's what success looks like: _____"

"You have authority to: _____"

"Check in with me when: _____"

"I trust you to drive this because: _____"

Then ask — this is a conversation, not a speech. Give them the last bit of clarity, capability, and confidence to fully own it:

"Do you have any questions, or is there anything that would keep you from fully owning this?"
